Remarkable Record of Mt. Sterling Boy

Mr. Lewis A. Judy, special agent for the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company, of California, has received notification from the home office that of the more than 1,000 life producers, scattered throughout the United States he stands 65th in new paid for business up to August 31st. Mr. Judy has jumped from 85th on the 31st day of July to the place where he now stands.

This is quite a remarkable record considering the fact that Mr. Judy has only been devoting his time to life insurance since the first of the year and the Pacific Mutual is to be congratulated on numbering him among its representatives in the life department.

MEMORIAL SERVICE

A memorial service for Mrs. Cynthia Ann Reed was held this afternoon in the parlors of the Baptist church and was presided over by Mrs. L. E. Griggs. The program was as follows: Devotional, Mrs. B. F. Thompson; Mrs. J. W. Hedden, Sr., biographical sketch and such reminiscences as occurred to her; as a neighbor, Mrs. W. P. Guthrie; as an example, Mrs. William Moore. Duet by Mrs. Lee Orear and Mrs. S. B. Carrington. As a friend, Mrs. G. N. Cox and Mrs. F. W. Bussett; as inspiration to the young, Miss Anise Hunt; as a church member, Mrs. G. B. Senff; W. M. U. resolutions by Mrs. Lee Orear. Resolutions from Fannie Powers Circle, of which she was a member, by Mrs. G. N. Cox, Song, "Jesus Savior, Pilot Me." Benediction, Mrs. R. C. Goldsmith.

25,000 SQUARE FEET OF CONCRETE FLOOR SPACE

The Ragan-Gay Motor Company are completing their new addition to their garage, which will give them 25,000 feet of concrete floor space, making it one of the largest and most complete in the state. It is so constructed that the entire building is fireproof. It has a two-story rear, where the work and repair shops will be installed.

Plans to Meet the Gas Emergency

The West Virginia Legislature has passed a bill restricting the sale of natural gas to outside states until the requirements of West Virginia are adequately supplied. This law is now being contested in the courts, as it will materially affect the gas supply of Ohio, Pennsylvania and Kentucky, which is largely derived from that state.

The Central Kentucky Natural Gas Company, however, which supplies Mt. Sterling and adjacent towns, is already preparing to meet the emergency by contracting for gas from wells on Froen Creek, in Breathitt county, and laying a branch line from those to its wells on the main line in Morgan county, so as to have as plentiful supply in case the West Virginia law is upheld in the courts.

This action on the part of the company is very gratifying, especially on account of the present prohibitive price of coal.

ENTERTAINED

This afternoon at the church parlor of the Presbyterian church the Missionary Society of which Mrs. Margaret Gaitskill is president, entertained with Mrs. William VanAntwerp, hostess. The program, under the arrangement of Mrs. Silas Stofer and the president, was interestingly rendered and the luncheon was a most delightful one. The evening was profitably spent and a pleasure to all. For one absent local editor, we tender regrets that he could not occupy two places at the same time.

WILLIAM APPERSON INJURED

Wednesday W. P. Apperson was handling a yearling mule that was about to get away from him, and he caught a trace chain, which was violently drawn through his hand, inflicting a very painful wound.

REPUBLICANS NAME MRS.

L. E. GRIGGS CHAIRMAN

The local Republican organization has named Mrs. L. E. Griggs chairman of the Woman's Committee of Montgomery county. Mrs. Griggs is an enthusiastic Republican, an energetic and capable woman and no better selection could have been made.

Governor Cox Will be in State Twice on Tour

Governor James M. Cox will make two trips into Kentucky during his campaign. His first venture into the state will be on October 7-8. Later in the month Governor Cox will make another trip to Kentucky to address the workers at Ashland and Catlettsburg.

The Democratic candidate opens his Kentucky speaking at Elizabethtown at 9 o'clock on the morning of October 7. Bowling Green voters will hear him at 2 o'clock that afternoon. He will speak at Nashville in the evening. He leaves Nashville immediately after this meeting to speak at Paducah at 10 o'clock on the morning of October 8. From Paducah Governor Cox will jump to Louisville for a monster mass meeting in the Kentucky metropolis that evening. Wherever the train stops long enough for a rear-end appearance Governor Cox will address audiences on the trip from Paducah to Louisville.

New Policeman

Tom Fitch has been named policeman succeeding Policeman Hunt, who recently resigned. Mr. Fitch has been connected with the Kentucky Utilities Company for eight years and has never lost a day from work, including Sunday, and is certain to make a competent officer, being popular with all classes, and is known as a fearless man who will perform his duty as he sees fit.

Lovers of racing from all parts of the country and Canada will be at Lexington Monday, October 4, the opening day of Lexington's Great Trots. All the hotel space has been reserved and every private box at the Trots has been sold.

IMPROVEMENTS

The women of the Catholic church continue to improve their house of worship and will soon fresco the interior, paint the exterior, put in new pews, add a heating plant and possibly a pipe organ.

NO IMPROVEMENT

Word comes from Indianapolis saying the condition of M. R. Hainline is without improvement and that his condition is serious.

Winchester Population Figures to be Probed

A. W. Dampler, of the Census Bureau, is on his way to Winchester, Ky., to make an investigation and report to Sam L. Rogers, chief of the Census Bureau, whether a revised enumeration of Winchester should be made. A recount has been made in a portion of the city and such discrepancies from the original count were shown that the Census Bureau was convinced there had been an error in the enumeration. Mr. Dampler will make an investigation into the situation and if it appears to him that substantial injustice has been done the city the enumeration probably will be taken over again.

Official announcement recently made of the census of Winchester gave the city's population as 7,886, a gain of only 710 in ten years. The Winchester Commercial Club, believing the enumeration had not been properly taken, entered its protest and the partial enumeration was taken to get at the facts.

The result of the partial enumeration has led to the belief that Winchester is much larger than the census figures show.

Rice Wyatt to Succeed S. B. Carrington

Rice Wyatt has been appointed to succeed Sam B. Carrington as local manager of the Standard Oil Co., and will assume his new duties tomorrow. Mr. Wyatt has been connected with an oil company in this city for the past several months, is thoroughly competent and will make the Standard a valuable employee. Mr. Carrington, who has been the efficient manager here for the past several years, has been promoted to the position of traveling representative, but will continue to make his home in this city.

MOVE TO TURNER PROPERTY

Mr. and Mrs. Riggs Sullivan and family have moved to the modern new residence of H. B. Turner on Clay street.

The Kentucky Futurity ($14,000) at Lexington Tuesday, October 5, will be the most desperate colt race of the year, just as the same event was the greatest race of 1919. It will be mile heats, 3-in-5, and none but the fastest and gamest will start.

Tobacco Growers Meet in Lexington Today

Between 200 and 300 delegates from fifty counties of Kentucky, Indiana and Ohio, comprising the Burley tobacco district, are expected to meet in Lexington today to attend the district meeting of the newly organized Burley Tobacco Association, which will be called to order in the ballroom of the Phoenix hotel at 11 o'clock A. M.

The purpose of the meeting is to receive reports from the various counties on the organization plan of the association and to pass on the charter and by-laws framed by a special committee composed of David Prewitt, Clark county; T. B. Hill, Montgomery county; Victor Bradley, Scott county; Everett McClure, Durbin county, Ind., and O. C. Chapman, Clermont county, Ohio; Chairman John W. Newman, of Woodford county and Secretary E. M. Mansfield, of Carroll county, which it is understood, is ready for submission.

The ladies of the Grassy Lick church will have an exchange at the Fair-Way Grocery Store Saturday, October 2nd.

Mrs. Jennie Robinson's home, one of the most modern and best located in the city, will be sold Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock on the premises on West High street, 100-2t.

SLIGHT IMPROVEMENT

The condition of Mr. Parker Pierce as reported by us last week was more serious than was given out at the time. He continues to be confined to his bed and cannot turn without assistance. His improvement is slow.

One of the most desirable pieces of property ever offered under the hammer will be the Mrs. Jennie Robinson home on West High street on Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock on the premises. (100-2t)

Popular Democratic Candidate for Vice President Will Arrive at 7:45 and Speak at 10 O'clock

One of the Largest Crowds Ever in Mt. Sterling Expected to be Here for the Day

Tomorrow morning at 7:45 o'clock Hon. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Democratic candidate for vice president, will arrive in this city and at 10 o'clock will address the voters of Eastern Kentucky from a stand erected on the public square in front of the court house. He will remain here as our guest until 11:55 when he will depart for Lexington, making a brief speech at Winchester from his special car.

The coming of Mr. Roosevelt to our city is expected to draw to Mt. Sterling the largest crowd that has been here since William Jennings Bryan spoke here a number of years ago. Everything is in readiness for his coming and the gifted son of New York is assured of a rousing welcome from the time he steps off his private car until his departure several hours later.

He is recognized as one of the best speakers in the country and not a man, woman or child in this section should fail to avail themselves of the opportunity of hearing this gallant exponent of democracy.

Do you want a desirable home, one of the best located and most modern in the city? If so, attend the sale of Mrs. Jennie Robinson on West High street Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. (100-2t)

EDITORS AND U. S. BONDS

Missouri editors in attendance at the 54th annual convention of the Missouri Press Association, whom the editor of the Savings Herald had the pleasure of meeting, spoke kindly of the work the savings division of the Treasury Department was doing in endeavoring to stabilize the Liberty Bond and Victory Note market, and to keep interest aroused in the other United States securities issued on the market.

Dr. Henry M. Whelpley, editor of Meyer Brothers Druggist, one of the most influential trade papers in the United States, was keenly alive to the situation.

"Never a month elapses," said Dr. Whelpley, "that I do not use some of the material issued by your publicity department in our journal, and I augment this with editorial comment of my own."

"And I personally am practicing that which I preach. I am putting every cent I can possibly spare into the Liberty Bonds that the unwise are now selling below par. I am buying bonds of the Fourth issue, which are now quoted around 85, and when they draw interest at 4 1/2 per cent on the par value I know I am making as good an investment as it is possible."

Walter Williams, dean of the School of Journalism of the State University of Columbia, is also vastly interested in the financial situation.

"Just how people can doubt the value of the bonds issued by the United States government is beyond my ken," said Mr. Williams. "But I do know that the bonds are selling below par, and the thoughtless are apparently losing faith in their government. Why is there any need of telling the public that U. S. Bonds are the best investment on earth is beyond me, but I realize the necessity of the campaign being conducted by the Treasury Department."

Many of the editors deplored the fact that the scarcity of paper and of labor made it impossible for them to print as much of the information on the U. S. bond situation as they would like.

A Real Money-Maker

466 acres of strictly limestone soil, one mile from Charleston, Indiana, and only twenty miles from Louisville. Improvements consist of a good 6-room frame residence, 4 tenant houses, 4 tobacco barns, 1 large stock barn, silo, 2 corn cribs and all necessary outbuildings. If you are looking for a tenant proposition this is a farm that will pay you a handsome dividend, as there is an abundance of first-class tobacco land on the farm and the crops will show for themselves. To settle an estate the price placed on this farm is far below its actual value. Price per acre, $90.

If this one is too large, see us, we have them in all sizes. We have a new list of Clark county farms. Call on or write us.

LEAGUE CALLED THE MISSIONARY'S HOPE

"Ratification of the League of Nations as the greatest aid to American missionary work," was emphasized at every session of the eighty-eighth annual convention of the Churches of Christ in Kentucky, held at the First Christian Church, Louisville.

Declaring that revolutions in England are to be expected as a result of the conflict between capital and labor, and of the dissatisfaction over the manner in which the Irish question is being handled, that food is practically unobtainable in Germany and Austria, and describing conditions everywhere in Europe as "terrible," Dr. R. H. Crossfield, president of Transylvania University, who has just returned from a three months' study of conditions in Europe, said that "the only hope for stricken Europe is the League of Nations."

"If the League of Nations is turned down," the Rev. Dr. E. L. Powell, addressing the morning session, said "the crucifixion of Armenia and Syria by the Turks and Kurds under German leadership will continue in the land where Christianity was born."

The League of Nations was again touched by the Rev. Dr. M. A. Hart, Danville, regional secretary, saying: "Christ's purpose in the world was to make the nation as one," he said. "Our Lord prayed for an international mind and an inter-racial heart."

SPRINGFIELD BEGINS

Springfield, Mo., that made so splendid a showing during the economic year of 1919-20 in the Thrift Movement inaugurated by the U. S. Treasury Department, is not permitting the movement to lag this year, and W. W. Thomas, the city superintendent of the Springfield schools, is sanguine that the school sessions of 1920-21 will exceed that of the preceding year.

Under the direction of Superintendent Thomas there are 11 grade schools, in which Thrift in its real sense is a part of the course of study. Wednesday of each week is Thrift day, and the pupils are taught the Thrift Stamps they purchase on that day may be taken as an index to the thrift lessons they have learned.

Last year the 18 grade schools in Springfield bought a total of $14,188.51 worth of Thrift Stamps and War Savings Stamps. The McDaniel school led all of the other Springfield schools in the amount of purchases, and this one school bought the little baby bonds to the value of $2,552.24.

On the first Wednesday of the school year this year, before the organization got under full swing, the sales reached a total of $66.25. For the first Thrift Wednesday the Tefft school had the honor of leading, with sales of $14.40. The rivalry between the schools is keen and Superintendent Thomas says that the indications are this year the figures of last year will more than be exceeded.

VANCEBURG ADVANCING

Vanceburg, Ky., is one of the towns in the Eighth Federal Reserve district and is making hay while the sun shines and laying up riches that will serve in good stead in later days.

J. L. Chadwick is postmaster of this Kentucky town, which is not greatly in excess of 1,000 inhabitants, but Postmaster Chadwick is keeping his patrons informed as to the value of the securities issued by the United States government. Nearly every month he has orders filed with the Savings division of the Treasury Department at St. Louis for Treasury Certificates, while he urges them to buy Liberty Bonds while they are quoted below par on the market. His sales of Thrift Stamps and War Savings Stamps reach dignified sums each month.

If Satan had been able to stand prosperity he would be twanging a harp and shouting halleluia with the angels today.

WHAT WOMEN ARE DOING

Two young women in Arkansas, who have received appointments giving them the charge of the post-offices in the cities in which they reside, are making good for their Uncle Samuel and are putting gold in the pockets of their patrons, and doing good work generally.

Miss Rosa Wallace is postmistress at Washington, Ark., a town of less than 500 inhabitants in Hempstead county. Her sales of United States Treasury Savings Certificates reach figures that would do credit to a city many times as large as Washington.

In September she sent in orders for two $1,000 certificates in one day and her sales for the month will reach a figure considerably in excess of that figure. Since last June she has not failed to record satisfactory sales each month.

Miss Eulon Lewey, postmistress at Rosboro, Ark., is also doing valiant work, and in the dull days of August her sales of the securities offered by the United States government indicated no lack of thrift among her patrons, and her sales for September are running far ahead of any month since she was installed in her position of trust.

FERTILIZE YOUR WHEAT

The Agronomy Department of the University of Kentucky has proven beyond a doubt that Kentucky soils outside of the Central Blue Grass region responds to acid phosphate treatment in the production of wheat. Since the wheat crop is the most convenient place in a rotation to apply acid phosphate every farmer should apply some phosphate to his wheat this fall; 200 to 300 pounds per acre of acid phosphate could not only be beneficial to the wheat crop, but also to the clover and corn following the wheat in rotation.

A NEW SEED WHEAT

The Kentucky Experiment Station announces the development of a new variety of seed wheat, which has been called "Ashland." This variety represents a selection from Fultz and has all the good qualities of this old well-known variety, besides having a stiffer straw and so far has proven a better yielder than the Fultz. It is also comparatively free from disease, such as the seab, etc. Owing to the fact that the station has furnished a number of selected farmers in Kentucky the seed of this variety several thousand bushels should be ready for distribution in the state this fall. For further information concerning this, write to the Agronomy Department, College of Agriculture.

STEVENS GALLSTONE AND STOMACH REMEDY

For Gallstones, Stomach, Liver, Kidneys, Bladder and Rheumatism

Ashland, Ky., February 14, 1920.
This is to certify that one bottle of Stevens' Gallstone and Stomach Remedy cured my wife who had suffered for ten years with gallstones. She was cured with one bottle. She had to call in a doctor often. Sometimes it passed off without taking morphine. She hasn't had an attack for three years and I would recommend this medicine to anyone who suffers with this disease.

SAVED FROM THE OPERATING TABLE

I hereby certify that eight years ago I suffered from gallstones for three years. Physicians treated me in vain. The last doctor induced me to be operated on. I had everything fixed up to go to the infirmary and submit to the knife when my nerves forbade me.

As a God-send came Steven's Gallstone Remedy. I took two bottles of it and I am here today to say I am well. Never had an attack since. I faithfully recommend this remedy to all suffering likewise.

Stevens Remedy Co.

Gentlemen—I wish to state to you what your remedy has done for me. I had rheumatism in a very bad form, stomach trouble and had headache continuously, and after trying other treatments with no effects at last tried yours and have no pains or aches. Have gained 12 pounds and feel fine. You may use this in reference if you wish, and will be glad to advise anyone at any time in regard to it.

Respectfully,
J. E. WALLACE,
Dealer in hardware.

To whom it may concern:

This is to certify that I suffered ten years with chronic bladder trouble, and everything I ate disagreed with me, and could not keep anything on my stomach. I had to go to the hospital for treatment, where I stayed three weeks and four days, under treatment with stomach and bladder specialists. It was necessary to draw my water, as I was unable to urinate and could sleep but very little. Doctors advised operation as my only relief. I began taking Steven's Gallstone and Stomach Remedy on the 19th day of May and in a few days began to improve. I am improving wonderfully, and can eat anything I want and it does not hurt me. I sleep sound, and can urinate without any trouble. I am 74 years old.

"Thoughts For The Woman Voter"

1. What is the League of Nations?
It is a union of the civilized nations of the world (formed by the Treaty of Versailles)—a sort of international society with headquarters in Switzerland.

2. What is its purpose?
The League seeks to bring about world peace—

(a) By settling disputes between nations by peaceful adjustment instead of by war;

(b) By pledging each member nation gradually to reduce armies and navies (this means, of course, the reduction of taxes and the high cost of living);

(c) By making treaties public so that all citizens may know what their governments are doing;

(d) By undertaking to better working conditions and the welfare of women and children everywhere.

3. Who belongs to the League of Nations?

Thirty-seven nations have already joined — all the principal countries (aside from the former enemy nations who are allowed to come in later)—except the United States and Bolshevik Russia. Any self-governing nation may be admitted, and any member may withdraw after two years' notice.

4. Why is the United States outside?

Because a Republican Senate, ignoring the fact that our American boys fought and died in a "war to end wars," has twice wilfully refused to ratify the peace treaty, and so bring the United States into this league of peace.

5. How is the League of Nations run?

By an assembly of delegates from each nation in the League, for discussion of international affairs. It is something like a big, international conference, where the small states may be freely heard. The assembly may recommend action to the several home governments.

By a council of nine delegates (the United States, Great Britain, Italy, France and Japan to be always represented), which inquires into the causes of disputes and makes recommendations for their peaceful settlement. The council is the real governing body of the League.

All positions in the League, including that of secretary, are open equally to men and women.

6. What are the rules for voting?

On all vital points the vote must be unanimous in both bodies. In the assembly each separate nation and self-governing colony has one vote, although they may send three delegates to cast the one vote, representing different interests (labor, capital or a woman delegate to give the woman's point of view). In the council every nation represented, the noted Republican jurist Elihu Root has been abroad for the task of establishing this court under instructions from the League Council.

9. But what if a nation goes to war?

Then the nations in the League agree to cut off the offender entirely from all trade and intercourse. The Council may "advise" them (only that) to contribute a small share of armed force, subject, however, to the approval of their own

Tire Mileage Increased and Cost Reduced—for Small Cars

You can buy Goodyear Tires today at prices which are no higher than they were ten years ago.

And from these tires you can now obtain more actual mileage due to advancements made by Goodyear in their construction since 1910.

The present cost of Goodyear mileage therefore is decidedly less and this fact applies to all the line, including the 30x3-, 30x3½- and 31x4-inch size Goodyear Tires built especially for small cars.

If you own a Ford, Chevrolet, Dort, Maxwell or other car taking these sizes, go to your nearest Service Station for Goodyear Tires — get exceptional mileage at very low cost.

30 x 3½ Goodyear Single-Cure large or small, has a single vote and a single delegate. Great Britain, with all her colonies and about one-quarter of the world's population, has just one ballot.

7. Is the United States outvoted?
No. The United States, with its one vote, has power to veto any important proposal of which it does not approve, either in the assembly or in the council.

8. How does the League settle disputes?

All nations in the League agree to submit to arbitration disputes threatening war. Six months are given to investigate and report. Not until three months later (giving time for thought and cooling off!) may a member actually go to war, and not then, if one nation in the quarrel accepts the recommendations made. In case of disputes with non-members, or between non-members, the outsider is first invited to come into the League. Legal tangles (such as the meaning of a treaty, etc.) are settled by a Permanent Court of International Justice. In spite of Republican opposition to the League, governments.

10. What is Article X?

This article states that members of the League guarantee to respect one another's territory and protect it from external attack (the same principle as our own Monroe Doctrine, which has made for peace on this continent for nearly a hundred years.) It means that if our country is in peril she may call upon other nations in the League for aid. Article X does not apply to domestic troubles such as revolution or civil war unless the peace of the world is thereby disturbed.

11. Can the United States declare war without consent of Congress?

No. Congress, by our Constitution, is the only power in this country having authority to declare war. But first, within the League itself, the United States by its right of veto may refuse to enter any war.

12. Why do women want a League of Nations?

Because it saves the mothers of the future from sacrificing their sons to war. Because it is the only practical working plan to replace

WHY ALL GOOD WOMEN WILL VOTE!

Harry Sommers, editor of the Elizabethtown News, has done our figuring for us and we reproduce it in our editorial columns and give it to our readers in full force and indorsement. This is a time when every white woman should vote, and we urge them everywhere to cast their votes according to their own way of thinking for by following their own reasoning they will have undisturbed consciences with a feeling that they have cast their votes correctly.

"It is a great mistake to think that the good and intelligent women won't vote. To make such a statement carries with it the idea that good women are not as much interested in the government as bad and ignorant women. This is not true. The intelligent woman understands a great deal more about the questions involved in the election than the ignorant and illiterate. Understanding the issues involved she is very much more interested in seeking her views on public and national questions vindicated at the polls. The ignorant and lawless class of women know nothing about the questions involved in an election and therefore if they vote they do it at the dictation of political bosses or for a consideration. But votes cast by either the ignorant and vicious count just as much as those cast by the best informed and the most intelligent. If in Kentucky all the women should vote in this election there would be a large majority for the Democratic ticket for the reason there are more Democratic women than there are Democratic men and fewer Republican women than Republican men. This is true from the fact that only in Eastern Kentucky, from where the Republican majority comes, there are fewer women than men while in the Democratic sections there are more women than men. There is still reason for the hope of Democracy resting in the women, and that is that a larger per cent of the women are for the League of Nations than men.

"Democratic success in Kentucky this fall rests more with the women than with the men vote, but that success depends entirely upon how well they turn out and vote. If they do not poll at least 75,000 more votes than the Republican white women, then the 75,000 negro women voters, who will all be at the polls will control the election.

"There are about 200,000 Republican women in Kentucky, of whom 75,000 are colored. There are 225,000 Democratic white women in the state and with their full vote this will give the Democratic ticket 25,000 majority on the woman vote, which will insure the state to Cox and Roosevelt, but if one Democratic woman in seven stays away from the election and the Republican women vote their full strength then we only break even on the woman vote, and the presidential election may be lost by these 25,000 white women who are Democrats, staying away from the polls. This is the reason why we say the intelligent white women who are Democrats, are certain to vote. They understand the issues and when they have the opportunity to cast their first vote they do not propose to stay away from the polls and lose the election by the solid vote of 75,000 negro women."—Elizabethtown News.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE COMMENTS

Here's a dandy for the Chamber of Commerce to follow: Let me live in a house by the side of the road, Where the race of men go by— The men who are good and the men who are bad, As good and as bad as I. I would not sit in the scorners' seat Or hurl the cynic's ban— Let me live in a house by the side of the road, And be a friend to man."

—C-of-C—

The "Welcome" signs to be erected on the Maysville, Camargo, Winchester and Owingsville pikes have about been completed and should all be up this week. Give them "the once over" if out driving Sunday. If you like them speak a good word to some of the officers or the publicity committee; they'll appreciate it. If you don't like them, then keep quiet about it—they are much better than any we ever had before and maybe the next ones will suit better—as we may follow criticisms made.

—C-of-C—

If the expenses are not too great and the enthusiasm we look for is displayed Mt. Sterling and Montgomery county is going to have the biggest advertisement in the Automobile trip and the Style Show being planned, it has ever had. You'll be sorry if YOU are not represented in both. Get busy.

From Start to Finish

If there is any place along the highways and byways of life, any conditions or circumstances under which you need help, that the Chamber of Commerce can't furnish—just speak up, now's the time, and, if necessary we will draft some new members that can turn the trick. This organization will look after you from the "cradle to the grave" for we've got "butchers and bakers and candlestick makers"—all these and more. Just listen to this:

If you are not already here we've got the doctor (Vansant) to bring you into this good old world of ours and the teacher (Bubb, Supt. High School) to bring you up in the way you should go. We've got the banks (Mt. Sterling, Montgomery, Traders and Exchange) to help you save your spare change along the way and the place to relax after a hard day of "doin' ever' body you can" (Tabb Theatre).

When the glimmer of the bright lights no longer fascinate and single blessedness begins to pall, by means of the Cumberland Telephone and Telegraph Company get in touch with Bryan & Robinson or J. W. Jones, ascertain the price of diamonds, interview the McCormick or Mt. Sterling Lumber Companies as to the cost of building material, buy a car from Strother, Ragan-Guy or Mt. Sterling Garage and get our preacher (Goldsmith) to help you into the holy bonds of matrimony.

Then—if the burden proves too great to bear, any of these worthy gentlemen will be there to help you out: W. C. Hamilton, John A. Judy, W. B. White, R. G. Kern, E. W. Snuff, Henry Watson, R. H. Winn, W. A. Samuels.

In case your grounds are insufficient, with the help of Mayor McKee and Chief J. C. Tipton you might break your way into jail if you feel it would be preferable to the joys of "Home Sweet Home."

You might have had A. E. Lawrence, W. W. Ginn or John Cline build you a little home, bought your kitchen stove of Chenault & Orear or Prewitt & Howell, your cooking utensils from the Five and Ten-Cent stores, and from the kitchen out, furnish this model house from W. A. Sutton & Son, but, you had the foresight not to—the dream was too sweet to last.

No longer need you worry about Barnes, Vannardell or Kingo getting all your pennies, instead you can go to Rausenbloss—he's a good member and will give you breakfast, dinner and supper at a reduced rate.

Your property will probably all be converted into alimony, but in case you have anything left to insure you might try Chas. W. Kirkpatrick, Hoffman's Insurance Agency, B. Frank Perry, T. F. Rogers or Greene and Strossman. Would we could insure against all the ills of life.

But—be a sport. Go to the Walsh Company or Homba & Heibel, buy a classy fall outfit and play the game to the bitter end. During the process one of our journalists, W. P. Hinton or Lewis Kilpatrick may write you up occasionally, but why worry about that? "Notoriety is the spice of life."

By patronizing Land & Priest or F. C. Duerson, dealers in the famous "pop tonic," keep young and beautiful to the last, but when finally life's struggle grows too great, the by-paths too rocky for human feet to bear, select a sunny corner in the little lot you purchased of Hoff. Wood, order your tombstone from Sam Jackson and let Easton & Harris lay you peacefully away.

BACK WHERE I SERVED MY APPRENTICESHIP

Beginning with today they have a filled refrigerator with choice home-slaughtered meats. They will handle this class of goods daily at prices consistent with the decline of live stock. In addition every item for use on the table will be kept in canned goods, and fresh fruits and vegetables, and the prices will be one to all. The name Sanitary Meat Market will indicate our place of business, where we will furnish the best at the lowest prices.

First World Series Game October 5th

The American League won the toss at the meeting of the National Commission and the first world series game will be played October 5 in the American League city winning the pennant.

The first three games will be played in the same city, October 5, 6 and 7. On October 8 the teams will travel and on the ninth will open a four-game series in the National League city. On October 13 they will travel again, to play in the American League city on October 14. If a ninth game is necessary it will be played in the National League city October 16.

The National Commission also decided that if the American League race results in a tie between Chicago and Cleveland a three-game series will be necessary to decide the winner. In that event the first game will be played in Cleveland, the second in Chicago and the third on neutral ground.

CORN BELOW DOLLAR MARK

Warm weather and favorable crop conditions are ascribed for declines in corn futures, which have carried prices at Chicago and at St. Louis below the dollar mark for the first time in three years. December options in both cities closed at 99 1-4 and 99 1-2 cents, showing declines of from six to nine cents below former prices. At Kansas City, where corn futures recently went under the dollar mark, December options receded further to 92 5-8 cents.

HIS SWEETHEART SONG

The mocking bird is singing in the blossoms and the dew

A song about the sweetheart that thinks the most of you;
The sky is bright and cloudless when he sees her eyes of blue—
That's why he is singing of his sweetest.

The red rose is loyal, the white rose is meek;
And both of them are looking like their loving lips would speak.
We know they would be kissing the dimples on your cheek—
That's why they are looking their sweetest.

Sing, sweetest mocking bird. Sing about her eyes;
With dreams that make the morning on the hills of paradise—
Tell her there are lovers' lips to kiss her sighs—
Sing in the blossoms—sing your sweetest!

OLDTIME MINSTRELSY

Those who enjoy the oldtime minstrel show, the sort that grandfather used to take grandmother to in courtin' days, as well as the raggy jazzy daneey brand of modern melody and fun will enjoy J. A. Coburn's Minstrels at the Tabb Friday, October 1. The Louisville Courier-Journal says. "Coburn's Minstrels opened a week's engagement yesterday afternoon. Incidentally its the best attraction the Jefferson has housed this season, and deserves the cordial greetings of amusement seekers. They are recommended to all those who love a good minstrel show." ### PRODUCE REVIEW

Poultry prices are lower, due to increasing supplies and lighter demand. Prices, however, are higher than the corresponding week a year ago.

Poultry packing plants are now generally so fixed that they have sufficient help to take care of a liberal volume of poultry. Even marketing is suggested, in order to prevent a glut a few weeks hence, which would have a tendency further to reduce prices.

Butter consumption is reported generally to be larger and market and crop conditions justify a strong effort being made to maintain fall and winter production.

Nearly 1,000,000 pounds of butter arrived during the week from South America, selling at some discount under home production.

Egg receipts continue light, but to obtain prices must be strictly fresh. Old and held-back stock are not as desirable as prime storage eggs.

It is hard to please a woman. When father comes home lit up like Dewey's Arch he gives each of the kids a dime and he pats mother on the back and wants to kiss her, and she is so good-natured that he walks around an ant for fear he might step on it. And yet mother will bawl him out because he has been drinking.

EARLY SAVED SEED

CORN IS THE BEST

Reports indicate that the corn crop in Kentucky promises to be the best in years, and since we had a late spring, sort of a cool summer and recent wet weather it means that an early frost would damage this corn at least for seed purposes. In order to avoid the same situation that existed in the spring of 1918, farmers are urged to gather their seed corn early and dry it thoroughly. Further information along this line can be secured in

Circular No. 13, Experiment Station, "Care and Selection of Seed Corn."

Maybe you have noticed that when a man cloaks miserable greed with the hypocritical excuse that he is saving up for a rainy day, providence usually sends one.

Daughter can't bear to see her poor old mother slaving over a wash tub on Monday. So daughter gets up early on Monday morning and stays down town the rest of the day.

SOCIAL WORK CONFERENCE

The Kentucky conference of social work, which will be held in Danville, October 29 to November 1, will include addresses by many of the best known men and women in the state and a number from other states throughout the country.

Among those who will help to complete the program are Miss Mary E. Swinney, of the University of Kentucky, who will talk upon the subject of the making of budgets for the families with whom the social agencies deal; Homer Wickenden, superintendent of the Associated Charities at Louisville, who will outline methods and treatments for the handling of such families; Elwood Street, director of the Welfare League, in Louisville, who will tell of the ways of getting publicity upon social topics; T. L. Taylor, superintendent of the Feeble-minded Institute at Frankfort, who will tell of the work that is being done there; Walter A. Jilison, of the Insane Asylum at Anhegorage, whose subject will be "The Insane;" Dr. Anna Veech, who will tell of her experience in the examining of the school child; and Edward N. Clapper, of the National Child Labor Bureau, of New York.

The recreation program of the conference is being worked up in the form of a "play institute," which will appeal to those particularly who work with country or mountain children.

The general session on public institutions includes such men as Governor Edwin P. Morrow, Judge E. W. Hines and Joseph Byers, of the State Board of Charities.

The sections of the conference will be those dealing with the family, recreation, public institutions, health, rural development, child welfare and race relations. There will also be a number of luncheons, during the conference of those interested in like phases of social work.

the origin, history and development of the more important breeds of livestock with special reference to their adaptation to Kentucky conditions. The course in principles of feeding embraces an elementary study of digestion and assimilation and the use of digestible nutrients in the production of bone, muscle, fat, milk and work. Training will be given in the compounding of rations for different kinds of animals and a study will be made of the feed-stuff grown on the farm and offered on the general or local market.

The course in livestock feeding which comes in the second term, provides for a more advanced study of feeds and their relation to livestock management. Feeding experiments will be investigated and observations made as to the feeding and care of the pure bred livestock as well as the various feeding experiments in progress on the Experiment Station farm. The study in feeding will be directed by E. J. Wilford.

Under the leadership of J. C. Grimes a systematic study will be made of feeding, care and housing of beef cattle for the market and for breeding purposes. The students will get the benefit of care experiments, which have been carried on with beef cattle. The fitting, care and management of breeding and fat cattle for the sale and show ring will be given attention. The students' laboratory will consist of a practical work in the care and handling of beef cattle.

The production, growing, fitting, finishing and marketing of sheep and swine will form an interesting course of study in the sheep and pork production course. In connection with this course a study of the production, grading and marketing of wool will be taken up, while the laboratory work will consist of practical work in the care and management of sheep and swine, fitting them for sale and show ring and handling the wool.

Many students in the short course will be especially interested in the breeding of farm animals course, which will consist of the care and management of stud animals; the method of improving farm stock by selection, grading, inbreeding and line breeding; the laws of heredity, etc., which will be taught by Prof. W. S. Anderson.

Eight Chicago Baseball Stars Are Indicted

Indictments were voted against eight baseball stars of the Chicago American League club yesterday and confessions obtained from two of them, while Charles A. Comiskey, owner of the oft-time champion Chicago White Sox, smashed his penant-chasing machine to clean up baseball. The confessions told how the Sox threw last year's world's championship to Cincinnati for money paid by gamblers.

Seven Sox regulars and one former player comprise the men against whom true bills were voted by the Cook county grand jury, and the seven were immediately suspended by Mr. Comiskey. With his team only one game behind the league-leading Cleveland Indians the White Sox owner served notice that, if the men were found guilty he would drive them out of organized baseball for the rest of their lives.

Officials of Chief Justice Charles McDonald's court, desirous of giving the national game the benefit of publicity in its purging, lifted the curtain on the grand jury proceedings sufficiently to show a great hitter, Joe Jackson, declaring that he deliberately just tapped the ball; a picture of one of the world's most famous pitchers, Cicotte, in tears, and glimpses of alleged bribes of $5,000 or $10,000 discovered under pillows or on beds by famous athletes about to retire.

The exact nature of the information Mr. Comiskey put before the grand jury was not disclosed. The men whom the jury involved as a result of testimony uncovered by their owner were:

Eddie Cicotte, star pitcher, who waived immunity and confessed, according to court attaches, that he took a bribe of $10,000.

Arnold Gandil, former first baseman.

"Shoeless Joe" Jackson, heavy-

Oscar (Kip) Felsch, center-fielder.
Charles (Swede) Räsberg, short-stop.
Claude Williams, pitcher.
George (Buck) Weaver, third baseman.
Fred McMullin, utility player.
